

Fontsmith × Glug

During Glug London's 2019 'Thinking Big' event we invited you to join us in the Fontsmith 'Letter Lab' to create and submit some experimental letterforms.

After being inundated with over 150 entries it was a tough time to narrow down the submissions. Eventually we settled on 54 of our favourites that we have now transformed into 'Glug Irregular', a wonderfully offbeat and experimental typeface for you to use on your next ransom note.

Check out the character set below to see if you made the cut.
